I can eat a bun,
Put it in my tum,
Open up the top,
Sip on my pop.

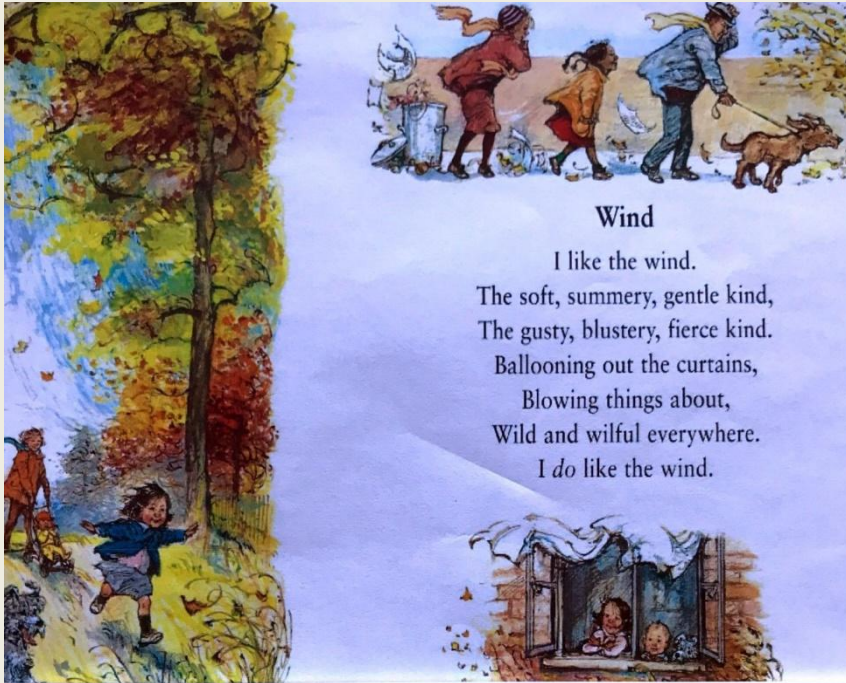

I can eat a bun

Put it in my tum

Open up the top

Sip on my pop

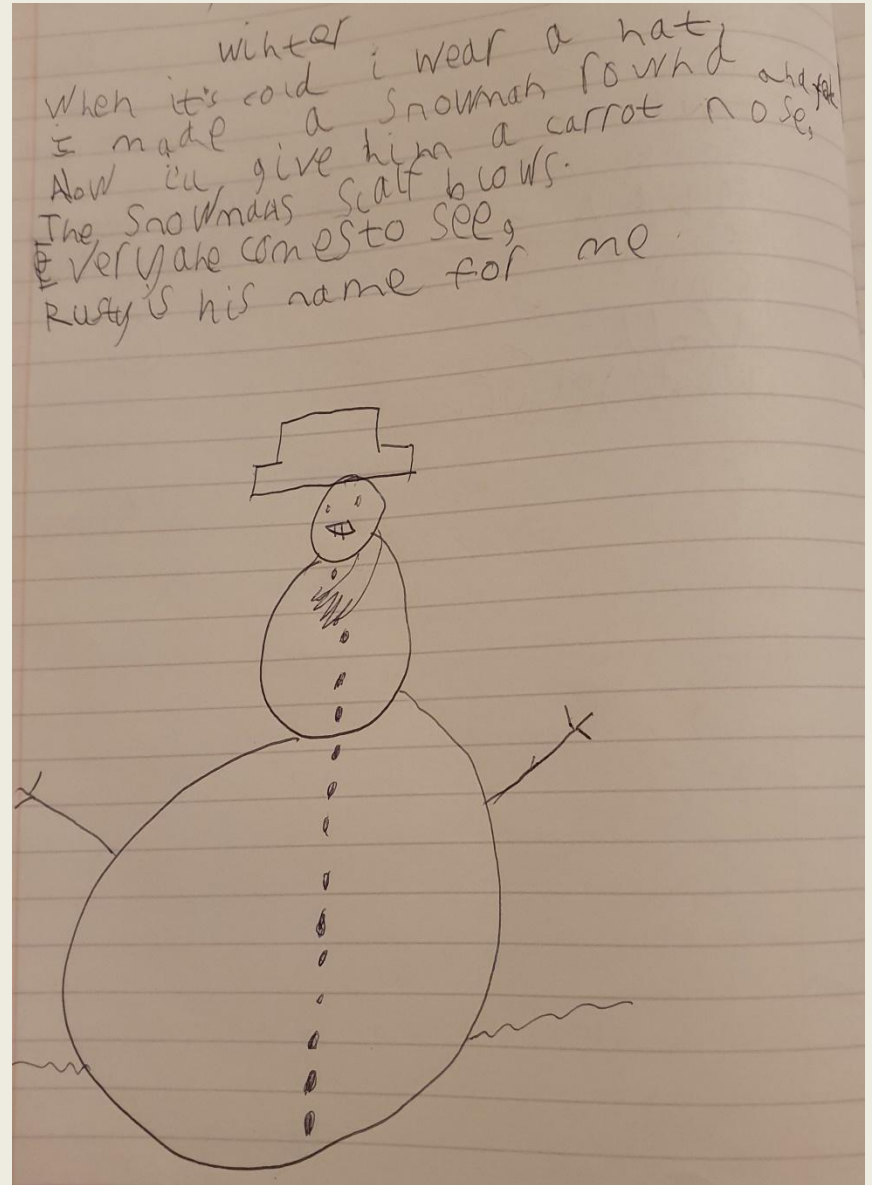

Wind

I like the wind.
The soft, summery, gentle kind,
The gusty, blustery, fierce kind.
Ballooning out the curtains,
Blowing things about,
Wild and wilful everywhere.
I do like the wind.

All the sun's rays
Make ~~my~~ me warm
On my walk to home home.

Weather Poetry

We have been thinking about the weather and have written our own weather poems about our favourite type of weather. What is your favourite type of weather?

Paddington Art and DT

Proud Paddington's
Here are a few of our precious master pieces!
Peruvian Paper Weaving, Paddington Toast and many small perfect
Paddington Bears!

Paddington from Peru

Paddington came from Peru. We have been finding out where Peru is by using maps and atlases.

We have also created our own deepest darkest Peru by making backdrops of the rainforest where Paddington began his adventures.

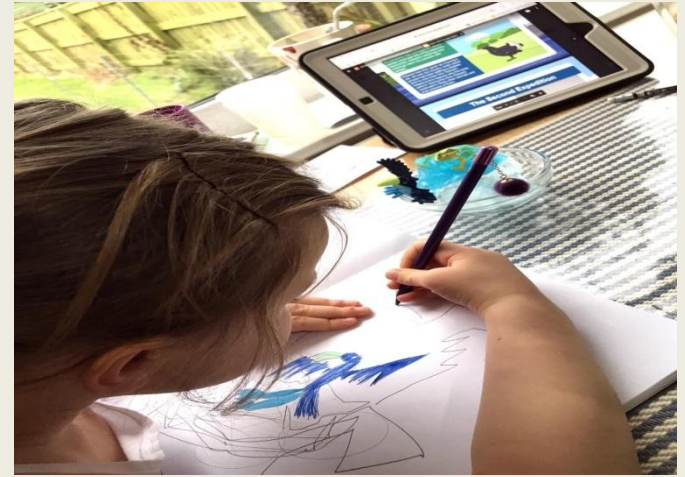

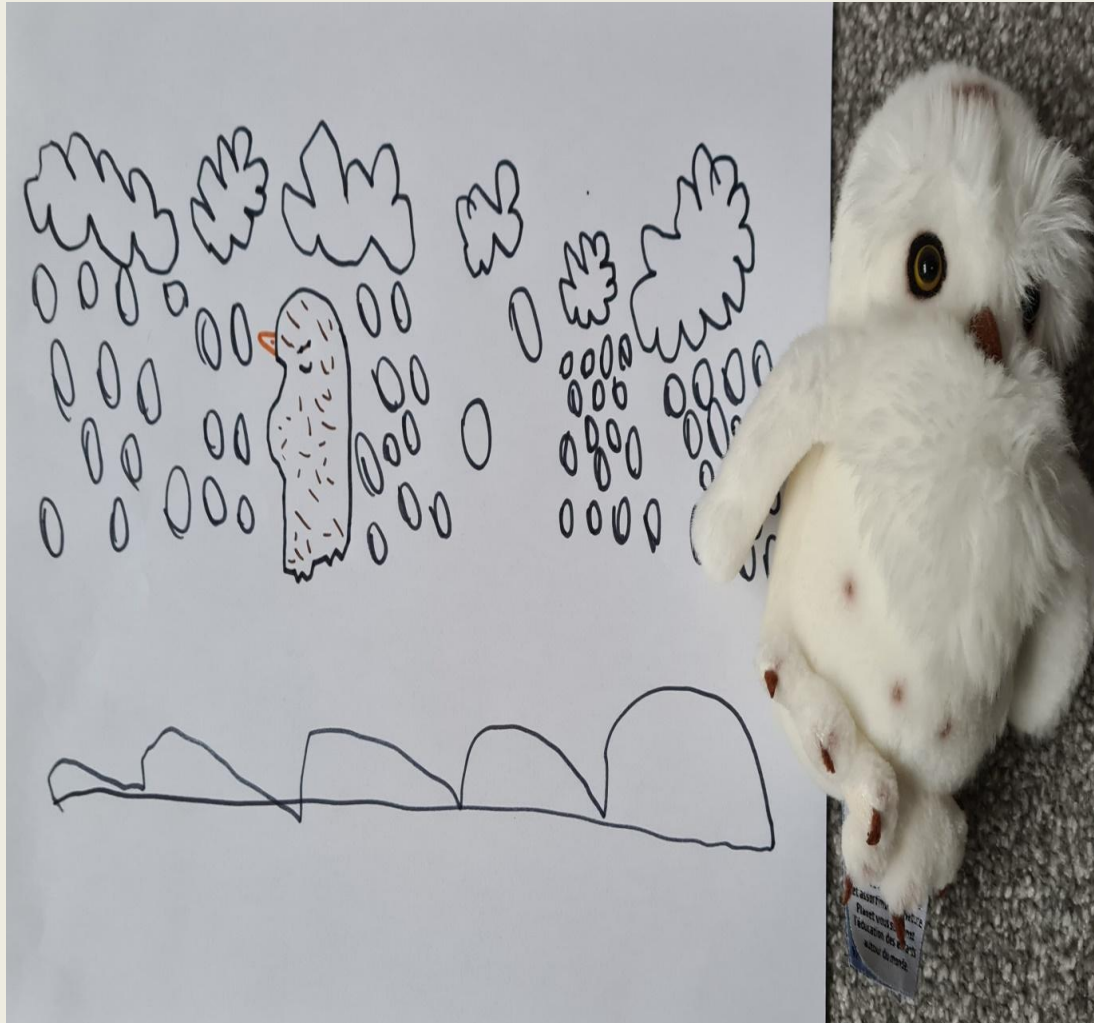

PE with Joe Wicks

Dr Edward Adrian Wilson Research

We have been finding out about Dr Edward Adrian Wilson who was a famous explorer and artist. We have been thinking about what it would have been like in Antarctica. We have carried out ice experiments and have created our own art work.

Outdoor Learning and local walks

The discovery of wonderful things in nature, from beautiful and strange ice formations.....

To crabs, fish and shells washed up on the shore.
