

Hipsburn Primary School's principles for science teaching and learning

Science is good when...

We make discoveries and do practical experiments and investigations.

We are inspired by trips, visits and events.

Learning is fun, exciting and challenging.

We use scientific vocabulary to talk about what we are learning.

Key Vocabulary
offspring reproduction variation

We find out about our local environment by being outdoors and at beach school.

