

Useful COVID-19 resources for children

The following resources are great tools for children to learn about COVID-19 in a safe and educational way.

NHS Library and Knowledge Services has a variety of activities to engage children around COVID-19, through the use of poetry and stories.

library.nhs.uk/coronavirus-resources/children-and-young-people

Read Teach Learn Think blog has an excellent article listing some fictional children's books that focus on naming, identifying and managing emotions, washing hands, social distancing and COVID-19 in general.

readteachlearnthink.wordpress.com

Everybody Worries by John Burgerman, is a free online picture book for children who may be worried about COVID-19.

home.oxfordowl.co.uk/books/jon-burgerman-everybody-worries-free-ebook

Coronavirus - a book for children by Professor Graham Medley, aims to ease children's concerns, explaining what a virus is and how you might catch it - and what happens if you do catch it.

lovereading4kids.co.uk/book/17066